It is expected that Carle Illinois College of Medicine students and representatives will conduct themselves at all times in accordance with the Professionalism Policy and the University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign Student Code.

Please choose one below:

- The behavior is exemplary
- The behavior is deficient or of concern

Please choose the appropriate category for which the students behavior is represented as exemplary or deficient/concerning. More than one may apply. In the comments please describe in detail the behavior or pattern of behavior.

Professional Ethic

- demonstrate respect for the life, health, or the autonomy of the patient.
- recognize his/her biases and not allow them to affect patient care or contribute to threatening or harassing interactions with others.
- demonstrate an awareness of costs and resources, quality of life, and related ethical decisions
- Uses illicit substances OR Uses alcohol, non-prescription drugs or prescription drugs in a manner that compromises ability to contribute to patient care
- Misrepresents self, others, or members of the team to others

Professional Relationships & Responsibilities

- demonstrate compassion and respect for all patients
- vigilant in regard to personal conflicts of interest, such as acting in ways designed to advance one’s own career, family and allies’ interests, finances, power or influence when contrary to the best interests of the patient.
- demonstrate empathy and respect for all faculty members, students, residents, staff and patients and their families without regard to any intrinsic or extrinsic personal behaviors, characteristics, or beliefs
- recognize and admit mistakes and seek and accept feedback and use it to improve performance
- maintain professional composure and exhibit good personal and clinical judgment in stressful situations
- recognizing the importance of maintaining professional behavior in the clinical setting in spite of inappropriate action on the part of others
- displays appropriate professional appearance and be appropriately groomed

Reliability and Responsibility
☐ maintaining data security and patient confidentiality
☐ observe academic honesty in all circumstances and will be trustworthy and able to discern when he/she needs help.
☐ act independently to identify and complete tasks as they arise
☐ arrive on time and actively participate in clinical and didactic activities
☐ will follow through with clinical responsibilities, and be reliable and conscientious
☐ respond to communications (e-mail, pages, phone calls, e-mails, etc.) in a timely and professional manner

Patient, Faculty, Resident, Administrative Staff, and Other Team Member Interactions

☐ manage conflicts with tact and discretion.
☐ work effectively as a member of a team or organization to promote interpersonal, professional, and society development.
☐ communicate honestly, directly, and tactfully with patients, families, peers, faculty, and staff in all situations and interactions.
☐ Contributes to or fosters a positive learning environment, relating well to other students, staff and faculty.

Other behaviors not listed above (please describe below)

Describes the behavior reported, describe the impact to others or the environment of described behavior (Required)

Please submit this form to the Office of Student Affairs. INSERT EMAIL

SECTION FOR STUDENTS

My comments (optional):

I have read this evaluation and discussed it with the Director of Student Affairs, Associate Dean for Students Affairs, and/or Director of Academic Affairs.

Signature:  Date: